Made in the UK

Manufactured: _____ S.No.: _____
Art No.: _____

This device complies with part 11 of the EMC Directive and is subject to the following conditions:
(1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and
(2) This device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

cabledetection
detection is part of working

The diagram shows a red excavator bucket with the EZIDIG sensor attached to its side. A blue arrow points from the sensor to the bucket, indicating its use in excavation work.
